Docket No. 2:20-mj-00101-JHR

GOVERNMENT’S MOTION IN SUPPORT OF PLEA HEARING BY VIDEO TELECONFERENCE PURSUANT TO GENERAL ORDER 2020-11

The United States of America, by and through its attorneys, Halsey B. Frank, United States Attorney for the District of Maine, and Meghan E. Connelly, Assistant United States Attorney, do not object to Defendant Alexander Burnham’s motion to conduct a change of plea via video teleconference. In light of the circumstances surrounding the Defendant’s detention in State custody, the Government believes a plea by video teleconference is appropriate and would alleviate any harms to the interest of justice.

For the aforementioned reasons, the Government does not object to the Defendant’s Motion.
